WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1745.

...rday arriv'd the Mails due from Holland and Flanders.

Conſtantinople, Auguſt 1.

THE famous Baſhaw Oſman Oglou, whoſe Revolt gave us ſo many Apprehenſions, has at laſt loſt the Power of hurting us, together with his Life; but how, is not quite ſo eaſy for us to ſay. Some report, that the Miniſtry having applied the proper Medicines for reviving the decay'd Loyalty ...his Adherents, they took an Opportunity, when he ...rned to his Tent, after viſiting the Advance-Guards ...he Evening, to attack, and cut him to Pieces. But ...ers are no leſs poſitive, that when all Endeavours to ...g him back to his Duty had failed, his Cook was ...ged to put an End to all his great Deſigns, by a ...p properly prepared. However the Matter be, moſt ...ain we are that he is as dead as a Doot-nail; upon ...ich the Divan have expedited their Orders to the ...cipal Officers in Aſia, to ſeize, with the utmoſt Ex...dition, all the Baſhaw's Accomplices, in order to ſend ...r Heads hither; and, at the ſame time, to lay their ...nds upon his Wealth, which exceeds 6,000,000 of Du... This News was ſo very welcome to the Court, ...t the Grand Signor has ordered Rejoicings for ſeveral ...ys, and thoſe too of different Kinds. The Spectacle ...a Wood was exhibited on the Black Sea; there were ...rſe-races, Jouſts, and various other Diverſions; at all ...which the Emperor was preſent in Perſon. We ...e ſince received ſtill more good News; a great Body ...Tartars have made an Irruption into Perſia, where ...y have done prodigious Miſchief, and carried off a ...eat Booty. Beſides all this, there are new Troubles ...oke out in that Empire, which have obliged the Shah ...adir to return Home, in order to put a Stop to them. ...muſt, however, be owned, that there are ſome Infidels ...e, who ſcarce believe a Word of all this, and who are ...ſuaded, that theſe Stories of great Things done in ...ia, are invented to amuſe the Populace, and put them ...a good Humour. We can, however, venture to ...m a Fact, that happened under our Eyes; which is, ...the Ruſſian Miniſter, M. Weiſchniakow, died here ...the 9th, and was interr'd the next Evening, in the ...ek Church, at Tempin; leaving behind him the ...aracter of an able Stateſman, and of being an up...ght honeſt Man; ſo that his Loſs is infinitely re...ted.

Aleppo, May 2. According to the laſt Advices from ...erſia, the Shah Nadir detach'd 30,000 Men to reduce ...Rebel whoſe Name was Tahi-Khan, who had been ...h-Governor of the Province of Schiras. He defended ...mſelf with great Obſtinacy, loſt the Country Inch by ...ch, and at laſt ſuffer'd himſelf to be ſhut up in the ...ty of that Name, which was one of the fineſt and ...cheſt in Perſia. It was, however, carried by Aſſault; ...d all the People capable of carrying Arms, put to the ...ord without Mercy. The Women and Male Chil...en were ſold for Slaves. As for Tahi-Khan and his ...mily, they were carried to Iſpahan, and there expos'd ...the Market-Places to the Inſults of the Mob. Some ...ys afterwards he was brought into the great Square, ...ere he had firſt the Mortification of ſeeing his Wife ...ſh'd by as many as would of the Soldiers; then his ...eſt Son had his Head cut off, kneeling at his Feet; ...d afterwards Fifty of his Friends ſhar'd the ſame Fate. ...he Executioner then ſeiz'd upon him, and tore out ...e of his Eyes by the Roots; they had proceeded far...er, but that an Order came from the Shah Nadir to ...ing him to him at Kars, and to cut off a Member at ...ery Town he ſtopp'd at by the Way. Theſe Cruelties, ...ſtead of terrifying, exaſperated the People; ſo that ...oſe who were moſt attached to the Shah, begin to ...ew evident Signs of Diſcontent. This has had a very ...range Effect upon his Mind; for conceiving that he ...s not long to live, he has ordered a Tomb to be built ...r himſelf at Calaat in Koraſan, where he was born, ...mpos'd of fine Marble; on the Top of which is rais'd ...Pyramid, compos'd of Pomgranates of Gold, ſur...ounted by a naked Arm holding a Sword, all of the ...me Metal. He has appointed 12 Mollas, or Prieſts, ...ho are to be relieved by each other thrice in 24 ...ours, ſo that four are to be always on Duty, who are ...hold Wax Candles and Lamps fill'd with perfum'd ...l in their Hands, while they ſing Hymns, full of ...s Praiſes.

Petersbourg, September 1. The Celebration of the ...arriage of the Grand Duke with the Princeſs of Anhalt Zerbſt, was performed with all the Eclat and Magnificence imaginable, this Day. All the Foreign Miniſters were invited two Days ago by the Maſter of the Ceremonies, and had their proper Places aſſign'd them. The Prince of Heſſe Hombourg ſet out from hence on the 29th of laſt Month; but the Princeſs, his Conſort, will continue in this Country. There is no doubt, that after the Rejoicings for this Marriage are over, publick Buſineſs, which has been for ſome Time at a Stand, will go on as uſual; or at leaſt, ſo the Foreign Miniſters hope.

Tortona, September 6. The Garriſon of our Citadel were allowed the Honours of War, marched thro' the Breach, Drums beating, Colours flying; and having reach'd the Road of Voghera, laid down their Arms, and are not to ſerve againſt the Crowns of France, Spain, or their Allies, for a Year; and are to be put into the Garriſons of Chivay, Ivree, Aoſte, or Turin, as his Sardinian Majeſty pleaſes. They are to be conducted to the King's Quarters at their own Expence. It is certain, that the Place was reduced to the laſt Extremity, chiefly thro' the want of Water, occaſioned partly by a Bomb's burſting on the Aqueduct, and partly by the great Quantities they were obliged to uſe in quenching the Houſes and Magazines that were ſet on Fire.

Heidelberg, September 17. The Landgrave of Heſſe Darmſtadt, accompanied by the Prince of Tour and Taxis, arrived here this Morning, preceeded by 60 Poſtilions ſounding their Horns; and ſoon after being introduced to the King of the Romans, preſented him with the Act of his Election. His Majeſty ſoon after appeared in Publick, and received the Compliments of the principal Officers in the Army. When the Dutch General, M. Smiſſeart, came to pay his Devours, he was not only received with all imaginable Marks of Reſpect and Complaiſance, but his Majeſty was alſo pleaſed to anſwer in the following Words. 'I am perfectly well 'informed of all the Pains your Republick has taken to 'contribute to my Election; and therefore you may 'aſſure the States, on my Part, that I ſhall never be 'wanting to expreſs the Gratitude I owe their High 'Mightineſſes on that Occaſion.' His Majeſty aſſiſted afterwards at the ſolemn Performance of Te Deum, and then at the Review of the Army; from whence he received three Salvos, the Officers and Soldiers, after each Diſcharge, throwing their Hats into the Air, and crying with all imaginable Marks of Joy, Long live the Emperor, Francis I.

Nuremberg, September 16. The Troops of our Circle are already in Motion; and the like Orders having been ſent to thoſe of our Neighbours, we make no doubt, that by the Middle of the Month of November, the Army of the Empire will be completely formed, and will conſiſt of at leaſt 40,000 Men. According to our laſt Advices from Bohemia, nothing of Importance has paſſed between the Armies; but it appears plainly, that the Pruſſians having loſt all Hopes of doing any Thing in that Kingdom, are about to retire back into Sileſia. We have not as yet received any Intelligence, that the Army of the Prince of Anhalt Deſſau has committed any Hoſtilities in Saxony; ſo that we ſtill continue to hope, that the Negotiation between the Courts of Dreſden and Berlin will terminate in a Peace.

Dreſden, September 15. The Duke of Weiſſenfels is relapſed, and is obliged to withdraw from Buſineſs. The Detachment commanded by General Renard paſſes thro' Dreſden this Morning. The Want of Boats has retarded its Arrival.

Dreſden, September 19. Count Rutowski being reinforced by the Firſt Saxon Detachment from Bohemia, marched the 17th from before Leipſig, nearer the Pruſſians, but has not paſſed the Frontiers of Saxony.

Berlin, September 18. General Geſſler, with his Corps, is expected To-morrow at Kopenick, in order to reinforce the Troops under the Command of the reigning Prince of Deſſau. It is ſaid, that the whole Army, which is now aſſembling at Halle, will amount to near 30,000 Men. The Armies in Bohemia remain in their old Poſition. We hear from Sileſia, that the Priſoners of War at Coſel amount to above 3000 Men. For ſome Days paſt the Preparations for the Defence of this City had been diſcontinued; the Burghers had been excuſed from mounting Guard in ſuch great Numbers; and the Cannon, which were ſome time ago planted up and down the Streets, had been removed into the Arſenal. But Yeſterday Orders were received to double the Number of Cannon at the Gates, and to make Preparations for a vigorous Defence; and the Corps under General Polentz has Orders to repair hither upon the firſt Advice of any apparent Danger.

Hague, September 24. Five of the Ten Engliſh Battalions, which have been ordered over into England, were to ſet out from the Army as To-day, and the other Five to follow To-morrow; they will all be embarked immediately upon their Arrival at Willemſtad; the additional Tranſports that were neceſſary for the whole Corps being arrived, with the Dutch Auxiliary Man of War for Convoy. The laſt Diviſion of the Heſſians has made ſuch Diligence in their March, that they will be at Arnheim on Monday next, the 23th Inſtant; three Days ſooner than expected. Lieutenant-General Swartſenberg, of the Dutch Corps, goes over with this Mail; and Count Maurice follows by the next.

IRELAND.

Cork, September 6. Laſt Wedneſday our late Lord Biſhop ſet out from hence, with a handſome Retinue, for his Houſe at Clogher. And Yeſterday arrived in this City, from Dublin, our preſent Lord Biſhop, and this Morning ſet out for his Seat at Ballinaſpick.

Dublin, September 10. Laſt Week the Aſſizes ended at Caſtlebar, where a Boy of about Eleven Years old was tried, and found Guilty, for the Murder of a Girl about Two Years old, by throwing a Stone at her, which hit her on the Head. He was ſentenc'd to die next November.

Laſt Saturday the Right Hon. the Lady Tyrawly, the Right Hon. William Conolly, Eſq; and Sir William Corbet, Bart. one of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Revenue, embarked on board the Yacht for Parkgate.

FOREIGN PORT.

Elſeneur, September 18. N. S. The following Commanders are arrived; viz. Johan. Lindt, from Aapenraae for Ireland; John Rutter, from Petersburgh for London; Thomas Hammond, from Riga for London; Jeremiah Barton, from Hull for Stockholm; Robert Turpin, from Newcaſtle for the Baltick; and Hendrick Bechman, from Ekenfor for Cork. 'I acquainted you 'in mine of the 14th, that the Fleet ſailed from hence 'that Day; the next Day they were met between the 'Trindles and the Scaw, by the Captains Burton and 'Turpin; the former ſays they ſtretch'd over for Wingo, 'but he believes they kept the Sea, the Wind being 'at N. E. By a Letter from Gottenburgh of the 15th, 'I have Advice, of a Ship from Belfaſt being arriv'd 'there, which was taken the Friday before by a French 'Dogger Privateer of Ten Carriage Guns, off the Nuze, 'and ranſom'd. Another Privateer has taken Capt. Wil'liam Baxter of Aberdeen, who came lately from Dant'zick, and likewiſe ranſom'd for 450 l. A Third Pri'vateer was gone Home with ſome Prizes; one of 'which was going to, and the other coming from Vir'ginia, as they write to me; but none of the Maſters 'Names are mentioned.'

HOME PORTS.

Dublin, Septem. 10. Sailed the Two Siſters, Bracken, for Antigua; the Wilmina, Kaper, for Rotterdam; the N. S. de l'Incarnation, Gonſalves, for Lisbon; and the Catherine, Monatty, for Barbados.

Dover, September 17. Wind E. Arrived the Union, Roach, from St. Euſtatia for Rotterdam, in 7 Weeks and 4 Days Paſſage.

Deal, September 17. Wind N. E. by N. Remain his Majeſty's Ships Royal George, with the reſt of the Men of War, and Dutch Admiral. A Man of War is now in Sight coming down, but can't get her Name this Poſt.

Arrived,

At Kinſale, the Polly, Atkins, from Montſerat.

At Briſtol, the Experiment, Bond, from Gibraltar; 'who came from Gibraltar with three Men of War, 'and were joined off Liſton by two others, with the 'Trade.'

At Portſmouth, the Falmouth, Forward; and the Hampſhire, Grant, from New England.

LONDON.

They write from Vienna, that they are in hourly Expectations of hearing that a Peace is concluded with his Pruſſian Majeſty; the King of Poland having full Powers to conclude for her Majeſty of Hungary as well as himſelf, in order to ſettle all Things on that Side upon a Stable Foundation.

A great Body of Banditti, compoſed chiefly of Deſerters, harraſs the Kingdom of Naples to ſuch a Degree, that Trade is almoſt at a Stand; and the Government has been obliged to make uſe of a Corps of Regular Troops to reduce them, and to reſtore the Safety of the Roads to and from that Capital.

In order to amuſe and keep the People quiet at Paris, the Miniſtry have propagated a Story that M. de Beauharnois, Governor of Canada, has rais'd an Army of 10,000 Men, with which he has marched over Land from Quebeck, and has recover'd Cape Breton. This ſhews how much the Loſs of that Place galls the French.

The Katharine, Derrech, from Bayonne for Martinico, is taken by the Garland and Boſcawen Privateers, who were both well in Lat. 44 : 00 : the 25th ult.

The Prince of Orange, Pelly, from East India, laſt from Holland, is arriv'd off Orford.

Laſt Sunday died, at his Seat at Caſhilton, William Mitchell, Eſq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Huntingdon.

Yeſterday Richard Thompſon, Eſq; Second Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, lay dangerouſly Ill, at his Seat near Epſom in Surrey.

The ſame Day died, at his Houſe in Kingſtreet, Weſtminſter, Mr. York, an eminent Silverſmith of that Place.

Admiralty-Office, September 17, 1745.

WHereas it has been repreſented to the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, that ſome Officers of his Majeſty's Ships have taken One Man in Six from Merchant Ships and Veſſels which had Protections, notwithſtanding they have had every Sixth Man taken from them before, and produced authentick Certificates thereof, under the Hands of his Majeſty's Officers who took them; which Proceeding was expreſſly contrary to their Inſtructions. Their Lordſhips do hereby forbid all Officers of his Majeſty's Ships to take any Man from any Ships or Veſſels, producing Certificates, as above, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril.

Thomas Corbett.

Admiralty-Office, September 17, 1745.

The only ſhort and infallible Cure for that reigning Diſeaſe the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the higheſt and moſt inveterate Degree, or however ſo many Years ſtanding, and that without any ſenſible Evacuation or the leaſt Purging, which by an unaccountable Miſtake is generally adviſed, although always found rather to increaſe and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the ſo much famed and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the leaſt Trouble Confinement, or any Diſorder whatever, do at once ſtrike at the true Cauſe of the Scurvy, and entirely deſtroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, ſo as never to return again, as many Thouſands of both Sexes have experienced; and as all who take them, in 3 Days time will be convinced; for they almoſt inſtantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, ſweeten all the Fluids, cleanſe them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weakneſs of the Limbs, languid Heavineſs of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakneſs of the Back, and all the moſt Various Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatiſm, and many other Diſtempers.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages (whence proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indiſpoſitions) no Bitters tea or other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inſomuch that beſides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they alſo aſſuredly and immediately cure the Green-ſickneſs in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almoſt all other Chronick Diſeaſes, (which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illneſſes.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reſtorative, ſtrengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and aſſoon as taken, make the Patient chearfully Lightſom, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Perſons, to preſerve as well as to procure a ſound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation theſe ſomuch fam'd and pleaſant Chymical Drops have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Eminence for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy and agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, ſome under the ſame, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be ſure to have the Right, which is the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's, at the Two Blue Poſts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Grand SPECIFICK SYRUP for CHILDREN.

THIS Syrup, by many Years Experience, has been remarkably ſerviceable in all Disorders incident to Children, and is the beſt Preſervative yet known againſt Convulſions and Epilepſies, when cutting their Teeth. It expels Wind, prevents ſour Belchings, and frequent Pukings, helps Digeſtion, and effectually appeaſes the Gripes. Its Virtues are known to be of uncommon Service in the Chin or Convulſive Coughs, likewiſe in all Conſumptive Caſes, either of Children or Grown People, from Obſtructions, Knots or Ulcers in the Lungs, attended with Coughs, Catarrhs, Hectic Fevers, Night-Sweats, Fluſhings, and Waſtings of the Fleſh; likewiſe in thoſe Eruptions of Infants call'd the Red-Gum, entirely rooting out and deſtroying the Acrimonious Humour and inward Heat of the Thruſh, which for want of timely Relief, kills multitudes of Infants.

It is ſo innocent, that it may be taken by a Child of a Day old; and is ſo far from laying the Foundation of a Train of Evils, by ſtupifying the Senſes, and only eaſing the preſent Pains, pauling the Stomach, &c. which are well known to attend all Preparations of Opiates, and which, by woful Experience, has ruined multitudes of Infants, by locking up in the Veſſels thoſe very Miſchiefs they were given to expel, and which, in a little Time, break out with a double Force, thereby at once ruining the Conſtitution of the Infant, and terminating in Death.

Sold at Dr. BATEMAN's Warehouſe, in Bow Church-Yard, London, at One Shilling the Bottle, containing about an Ounce and a half; ſealed as in the Margin, with copious Directions and Inſtructions in every Caſe incident to Children; together with a brief Account of the Nature and Original Cauſe, as well as Cure, of the Diſtempers common to Infants, according to the Opinion of the beſt Authors, Ancient and Modern.
